GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 1.1 Criminal Offenses

The offenses defined in this Code, and those provided for in other ordinances of the Tohono O'odham Nation constitute prohibited criminal behavior against the nation. Persons committing such offenses will be tried and punished by the Judiciary of the Tohono O'odham Nation as provided for by this Code, provided, however, that such jurisdiction whether or not invoked, shall not affect the power or authority of any other courts, including those of the United States, which may have lawful jurisdiction.

Section 1.2 Responsibility for Enforcement

The Tohono O'odham Nation of Arizona hereby assumes responsibility for the enforcement of the Criminal Code of the Tohono O'odham Nation, including any amendments and additions as may be later enacted by the Tohono O'odham Council.

Section 1.3 Authority to Enter into Cooperative Agreements

The Chairman of the Tohono O'odham Nation is authorized, with the consent of the Tohono O'odham Council, to enter into cooperative agreements with Federal and State governments for the purposes of mutual assistance and definition of responsibilities in the area of law enforcement.

Section 1.4 Criminal Jurisdiction

- A. The Nation shall have criminal jurisdiction over any Indian who commits any offense prohibited by this Code or the other laws of the Tohono O'odham Nation when the offense occurs within the Tohono O'odham Nation. In addition, the Nation has criminal jurisdiction over an offense if:
1. Conduct constituting any element of the offense or a result of such conduct occurs within the Nation; or

2. The conduct outside the Nation constitutes an attempt, solicitation, aiding and abetting, or conspiracy to commit an offense within the Nation and an act in furtherance of the attempt or conspiracy occurs within the Nation; or
3. The conduct within the Nation constitutes an attempt, solicitation, aiding and abetting, or conspiracy to commit or establishes criminal accountability for the commission of an offense in another jurisdiction that is also an offense under the law of the Nation; or
4. The offense consists of an omission to perform a duty imposed by a Nation's law regardless of the location of the defendant at the time of the offense; or
5. The offense is a violation of a Nation's law that prohibits conduct outside the Nation.

1.5 Statute of Limitations

- A. No person shall be prosecuted, fined or punished for any criminal offense unless a complaint has been filed against the alleged offender within three years after discovery of the offense by the Tohono O'odham Nation Police Department, or the reporting of the offense to Tohono O'odham Nation Police Department. When the offense is based on a series of acts performed at different times, the period of limitation prescribed by this section will begin at the time when the last act alleged to have been committed is discovered.
- B. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph A above, a five-year limitation period from the date of discovery or reporting as defined in paragraph A shall apply to the following Criminal Code offenses: Section 2.7 Bribery; Section 2.8 Accepting a Bribe; Section 2.14 Abuse of Office; Chapter 5 offenses; Chapter 10 offenses; and Chapter 6 offenses when charged with any other offense identified in this paragraph B.

Section 1.7 Mental Disease or Defect

A person may raise as a defense to a criminal charge a claim of mental disease or defect by offering credible evidence showing that such conduct was a result of a defect of reason as not to know the nature and quality of the act.

Section 1.8 Intoxication

- A. Intoxication of a defendant will not be a defense to a criminal charge unless the evidence of intoxication offered by the defendant negates the existence of a specific intent if such is an element of the offense charged.
- B. Intoxication as used in this Section means a disturbance of mental or physical capacity resulting from the introduction of any substance into the body including, but not limited to, alcohol, toxic vapor or narcotic drugs.
